

ARCHITECTURE

EDUCATION

- Master of Architecture, University of Pennsylvania, 1993
- Bachelor of Architecture with High Distinction, Pennsylvania State University, 1990
- Bachelor of Science in Architecture with High Distinction, Pennsylvania State University, 1990
- Studied in London, England, at the Architectural Association School of Architecture, 1988

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- Harrisburg Area Community College, Harrisburg, PA, Guest Architectural Critic, 1991 - 2000
- Pennsylvania School of Art & Design, Lancaster, PA, Adjunct Professor, 1997-1998
- High School for the Creative & Performing Arts, Philadelphia, PA, "Architecture in School," 1993

AWARDS & HONORS

- Valedictorian - Penn State University Architecture Class
- Student Marshal - Penn State University Commencement
- Outstanding College Students of America, Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, Golden Key Honor Society - Penn State University
- Valedictorian - Ephrata High School, Ephrata, PA

PROFESSIONAL REGISTRATIONS

- Registered Architect in Pennsylvania since 1995, New Jersey since 1999, and Delaware since 1999
- United States Green Building Council - LEED AP (Accredited Professional), Building Design & Construction
- National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB)

SCOTT L. SHONK

R.A., AIA, LEED AP
PARTNER

Joining the firm in 1995 as a registered architect, Scott became an Associate Partner in 2002. With an extensive education including a Master of Architecture degree from the University of Pennsylvania, his love for architecture and desire to educate others is a major force in his career.

Scott is one of the youngest architects to ever be voted president of the A.I.A. Central PA chapter. A registered architect in three states, Scott is experienced with all project types including religious design and the educational sector. He is very knowledgeable of the PDE/Plan Con process for K-12 schools. His design of the Bright Side Baptist Church was recognized with four national design awards in 2008.

With two undergraduate degrees from Penn State, Scott is also an enthusiastic Penn State football fan!